About library lending

- Once digital library books are redeemed they will appear in all your Kindle apps and devices.
- Kindle automatically backs up all of your notes and highlights. If you choose to purchase the book at a later date from the Kindle Store or check it out again, all your notes and highlights will be preserved.
- If you would like to return or manage your digital loans go to Manage Your Content and Devices.
- Learn more about public library lending.

Turning the envelope over, his hand trembling, Harry saw a purple wax seal bearing a coat of arms; a lion, an eagle, a badger and a snake surrounding a large letter 'H'.

Harry Potter has never even heard of Hogwarts when the letters start dropping on the doormat at number four, Privet
