Chart the Path Home

Even with a star map, getting back home is a mess! Carefully trace your path home, then try coloring in this spacey scene.

ADVENTURE BEGINS AT YOUR LIBRARY™

Start with a sticker, then mark a circle for every 20 minutes you read to track your progress.

The map is a hand-drawn style adventure map on a parchment-like background. It features a winding river, a mountain range labeled 'Mysterious Mountains', a forest labeled 'Bigfoot's Forest', a hot air balloon launch field, and a lake labeled 'Lost Lake'. A path of red lines connects circular markers representing minutes. The path starts at 0 minutes, marked 'START HERE!' with a red arrow. It goes to 900, then 925, 950, 975, 1000, 1025 (marked 'HALFWAY THERE!' with a blue arrow), 1050, 1075, 1100, 1125, 1150, 1175, 1200, 1225, 1250, 1275, 1300, 1325, 1350, 1375, 1400, 1425, 1450, 1475, and finally 1500, which is crossed out with a large red 'X'. A box at the bottom right says 'Don't forget to pick up your prize!'. Three markers are shown: a red one at the top right, a green one in the middle right, and a blue one at the bottom left.

Congratulations on 1,500 minutes!
The adventure continues on the Beanstack app.
